

International and European Tax Law - an anthology
Liber Amicorum prof. dr. Bruno Peeters - selected authors

Interdisciplinary or multidisciplinary studies of taxation?

The case of digitax

Cécile Brokelind

The BEFIT directive: an imminent threat for the arm's length principle?

Patrick Cauwenbergh

The EU solidarity contribution and equivalent national measures: unfortunate 'windfall taxes' caught between EU law and domestic constitutions in Belgium and Germany

Axel Cordewener

Giving with one hand and taxing away with the other

Tarcísio Diniz Magalhães, Sharon Waeytens & Anne Van de Vijver

Pillar Two: A Challenge to the French Legal System

Daniel Gutmann

'Value' included in Articles 13(4) OECD/UN Models and similar provision in actual tax treaties: 'book value' or 'market value'?

Eric C.C.M. Kemmeren

Applying the proviso safeguarding progression as a source state under tax treaty law: the silent possibility of higher taxation

Inès Klokar & Martin Klokar

Aging like fine wine: the parent-subsidiary directive's participation exemption in light of the CCJEU's Case law

Georg Kofler

Final Losses' under EU Law: Much Ado about Nothing? A brief reflection on the state of play

Claudia Sanò

International Tax Scholarship and International Tax Activism

Wolfgang Schön